Bipolar Disorder and Co-Occurring Substance Use Disorders

In collaboration with DBSA Greater Houston
Sponsored by Albert & Ethel Herzstein Charitable Foundation

1.5 CEUs available for LMFT, LCSW, LPC and Clinical Psychologist

Speaker – Sudhakar Selvaraj, MD, Assistant Professor, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences, UT Health Science Center and Director of UT Health Student Counseling Center

October 18, 2016, 12:00 PM – 1:30 PM

Substance use disorders can be prevalent among individuals who have bipolar disorder. We will discuss clinical presentation and implications for treatment of substance use disorders when co-occurring with bipolar disorder.