

AGING WITH GRACE

Healthcare Rights and Responsibilities

Monday, March 25, 10:00 am - 11:30 am

When you go to a new doctor or hospital, you are given information about your rights and responsibilities as a patient? When was the last time you read this document? In this presentation, we will review some of the key features, as well as explain ways that you can assure that your health care wishes will be followed.
